Reports	Principal	General discussion/questions arising from all reports. Principal's report taken as read. The College Students are excelling both academically and in other pursuits. The Head of Maths has moved to work at BSSS. The school rebranding process continues. The colours, font, graphics and vibe have been established but the actual logo is still being finalised. Once the Learning Commissioners have determined the logo with the external consultant it will need to be endorsed by the Board. The minister has been briefed of the rebrand process. The Board approved a budget of up to $100,000 for the rebranding process to include all new signage that is required. Moved: Lachlan Li Approved: Drew Baker New timetable has been decided by Staff – 8 Line Timetable with no Thursday afternoons off. May suit IB better. The College principals are pushing for a change in the AI Policy. There is going to be a Trial of an AI Policy Information session at some stage. The Directorate is moving slowly on this. The College could write guidelines but has to wait for a change of Directorate Policy for implementation.	Megan
